

ESTENZIA 4.0

WEB INTEGRATION

Description:

Website integration using frontend events is an essential part of web development that helps to enhance the user experience and engagement on a website. It involves using various front-end events such as clicks, scrolls, hovers, and keystrokes to trigger specific actions on a website. To ensure that this integration is carried out smoothly and efficiently.

Rules and Regulations :

- Participants must bring their own laptop and Internet will be provided.
- Users can use any coding platform (visual studio, sublime, etc).
- Each team can have a maximum of 2 members and minimum of 1 member.
- Themes will be given on the spot.
- Participants will be given 60 minutes to create the web page.
- WordPress is not allowed. You can use Bootstrap.
- Plagiarism will result in disqualification.